

E. Conference Call Referral Promotion

Beginning June 20, 2000, and ending July 16, 2000, this promotion is offered to Customers of GCI's Conference Center. Calls placed under the Operator-dialed or Meet-me Services are eligible for this promotion. During this promotion, GCI Conference Center Customers will be offered a Referral Coupon during a marketing contact. Customers may also request a Referral Coupon by contacting the GCI Conference Center. In order for GCI Conference Center Customers to receive the Referral Coupon, the Customer must furnish GCI with the name of a new GCI Conference Center Customer (the "Referral Customer"), and the Referral Customer must place an eligible call (as defined above) on or before August 31, 2000. A Referral Customer is defined as a customer that has not placed a conference call with the GCI Conference Center within the last 60 days from the date of the referral.

The Referral Coupon is a coupon that gives the bearer a 20% discount off the next eligible call placed after redemption, or $50.00, whichever is less. The discount is reflected on the bearer's invoice on the invoice following redemption of the Referral Coupon. All Referral Coupons must be redeemed on or before September 30, 2000. Customers are limited to one discounted call under this promotion. The Referral Coupons have no cash or refund value.

EFFECTIVE: June 20, 2000
