

F. Long Distance FREE MONTH Promotion

Business Customers who meet the eligibility requirements described below may enroll in this promotion.

Requirements: Customer must enroll in a one-, two-, or three-year term of service commitment of Company-provided interstate service under a qualifying calling plan, as defined below, between June 15, 1999 and September 30, 1999. All calling plans described in this tariff qualify for this promotion, with the exception of: the Direct Advantage Plan described in Section 3.1.5.T, the Clarity Plan described in Section 3.1.5.R, Option B of the Strategy Plan in Section 3.1.5.M, and the Flexibility Plan in Section 3.1.5.B. Customer must obtain all its interstate long distance service from GCI during the term commitment period.

Benefit: Customers with a one-year term commitment will receive a credit in their thirteenth month of service; Customers with a two-year term commitment will receive a credit in their thirteenth and twenty-fifth months of service; and Customers with a three-year-term commitment will receive a credit in their thirteenth, twenty-fifth and thirty-seventh months of service.

The credit applied to the Customer's account will be in an amount equal to their average interstate monthly billing during the preceding year, exclusive of taxes, monthly recurring charges, non-recurring fees, and any calling plan fees, for the previous twelve billing cycles, up to a maximum credit of $5,000 per year. Such maximum is waived if Customer obtains Company-provided local service during the term for interstate long distance service.

If the Customer changes any of its interstate service to another interexchange carrier, Customer is automatically ineligible to receive benefits under this Promotion.

EFFECTIVE: October 20, 2000
