

Residential Conference Calling Promotion

Between February 7, 2002 and April 30, 2002 residential customers who place a call with GCI's conference call center will be eligible for special rates between the hours of 3:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. (Alaska Time) and between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 9:00p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

A Conference Call denotes a call that connects three or more main station or private branch exchanges, or combinations thereof, on one connection at the same time via GCI's conference calling center. All stations on a conference connection may communicate with each other. Conference Service may be established to a specific person or to a specific telephone number/station.

The rates set forth in this section are applicable to portions of conference calls originating in Alaska and terminating within the United States. A complete listing of rates can be found in GCI's informational operator services tariff.
